By registering on Karadi Samaj Matrimony, you confirm that you are a member of Karadi Samaj and that you are using this platform solely for the purpose of matrimonial matchmaking within the community. This platform is created as a community-support service and not as a commercial marriage brokerage or guarantee-based service.

You understand and agree that all personal, family, educational, professional, community, and profile-related information provided by you during registration is submitted voluntarily.

Registration page flow

Except for verification documents, this information will be visible to other registered and approved users of the platform, and you accept this visibility as part of using the service.

You acknowledge that identity and verification documents, including Aadhaar card and caste certificate, are collected strictly for verification purposes only. These documents are stored securely and are accessible only to authorized Admin or Sub-Admin members. These documents are never displayed, shared, or made visible to any user under any circumstances.

You confirm that you are solely responsible for the accuracy, truthfulness, completeness, and legality of all information, photographs, and data submitted by you. Any false, misleading, incomplete, or incorrect information may result in suspension, permanent removal of your profile, or other actions without prior notice and without refund, in order to protect the integrity of the community.

You clearly understand and accept that Karadi Samaj Matrimony functions only as a facilitating platform to help members connect. The platform does not verify every personal detail beyond basic document validation and does not guarantee marriage, compatibility, suitability, or success of any match.

You agree that all interactions, interests, discussions, communications, meetings, and marriage-related decisions—whether conducted through the platform or outside it—are made entirely at your own discretion and responsibility. Any offline meetings, family discussions, or final decisions are beyond the control of the platform.

You expressly agree that all legal and non-legal responsibility arising from your profile data, interactions, communications, meetings, decisions, or outcomes lies solely with you and your family. Karadi Samaj Matrimony, its Admins, Sub-Admins, representatives, or associates shall not be held responsible for disputes, misunderstandings, emotional distress, financial loss, legal issues, or any consequences arising between users or families.

You understand that while reasonable technical and organizational security measures are implemented to protect user data, no digital system can guarantee complete security. By using this platform, you accept this limitation and agree not to hold the platform liable for circumstances beyond reasonable control.

You acknowledge that the one-time registration fee is a service and verification charge and is non-refundable under any circumstances, including rejection, suspension, or voluntary withdrawal.
